FAQ

How does the Delivery Menu work?

You can contact us at info@thesocialpaella.com with a menu selection, number of guests and delivery location, and we will provide you with a quote. The final order confirmation will depend on our availability. We will deliver the paella at your location in a authentic paella pan and the following day, we will pick up the pan at an agreed time.

How big is the paella pan?

The size is determined by the number of guests. The pan that serves 10-15 people is 27 inches and the pan that caters 20-25 people is 36 inches. Please be aware of the space needed in case of selecting this delivery option.

What is the delivery radius?

The delivery radius is 20 miles from North Hollywood or 40 min car distance.

How long does the paella stays warm after delivered?

The Paella stays warm for around 40 minutes after delivered.

Do I need to preheat the paella?

The paella doesn't need to be preheated, we do recommend that the delivery is set close to the consumption time.

How many paellas can I order?

We recommend one or two paellas and we will select the paella pan accordingly to the number of guests.

FAQ

How long in advance can I order a paella?

We recommend 5 days in advance or as soon as possible, because order confirmation will depend on our availability.

Can I go to pick up the catering order?

Yes, you can collect your order at our base at 13346 Saticoy St Unit 2, North Hollywood, CA 91605.
